

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

THURSDAY EVE., AUG. 26, 1886.

INDICATIONS: "Fair weather, nearly stationary temperature."

White soap 5 cents, at Calhoun's.

Governor KNOTT pardoned one of the convicts at Camp Hanna the other day.

Captain MUNDY is rushing things on his railroad work at Dover, and thinks of adding another mile to his contract.

SIXTY-THREE additions were made to the Christian Church at South Elkhorn, Fayette County, during a recent protracted meeting.

PALE-LEAF fans are distributed in the Christian Church at Paris. The idea is a new one, but one worthy of imitation this hot weather.

Have given Tongaine a thorough trial in seven cases of neuralgia. Secured relief in from one to four hours.—W. A. Johnston, M. D., Raleigh, Ind.

The store recently vacated by Runyon & Hickey, adjoining Bank of Mayville, will be occupied by Mrs. L. V. Davis, milliner, after the 1st of September.

Miss JENNIE TAYLOR entertained her friends last evening at her home on Forest avenue. Some ten or twelve couples shared the pleasures of the party and had a delightful time.

GENERAL RANSOM, of Lexington, took an overdose of morphine for neuralgia, Wednesday, and died in a few hours. He was formerly connected with the Kentucky Central.

Mrs. JENNIE O. CLARKE will open an art school about September 1st, to teach the higher branches of art—etching from nature and still life—painting in oil mineral and pastel. $23a1

The Lexington council has appointed two men to shoot and kill all dogs found at large in the city, ought not the council of Mayville to appoint a similar corps to shoot and kill dogs?

For the preservation of the eyes from impaired sight, or for the grateful assistance to sight already impaired there is nothing equal to the Diamond spectacles. They are for sale by Ballenger.

Work on the abutments for the railroad bridge across Lee's Creek, near Dover, is being retarded by the water in the creek. It will be a tedious job, and will require considerable time to complete it.

FLATGERS & STRIVERS were offered $10,000 for Pearl Medium, at Mayville, last week. She won second money in the race on Thursday, and is entered for a race at Chicago on September 6th.—Rip Bee and Times.

The Cynthiana Democrat says A. P. Gooding, Jr., of Mayville, has purchased a farm of N. W. Frazer for $18,000 cash, and will take possession in thirty days. The land lies two and one half miles north-east of Cynthiana.

For its soothing and grateful influence on the scalp, for the removal and prevention of dandruff, Ayer's Hair Vigor has no equal. It restores faded or gray hair to its original dark color, stimulates the growth of the hair, and gives it a beautiful, soft, glossy and silken appearance.

The Kentucky Central Railroad has bought of Sphar & Co. 100,000 of their hard ash brick, at $3.25 per thousand, for use upon the line of its road near Falmouth. The engineers of the company have subjected these brick to hydrostatic pressure, and find them to be of greater strength and density than any other brick within reach. These brick are delivered at the cars in Mayville.

The Teachers' Institute was well attended yesterday, and quite a number of visitors were present in the afternoon. The institute will close to-morrow noon, and we will give a more extended report, containing the names of the teachers present. We invite your attention to the article in this issue on "Culture versus Instruction," by Professor Truax, who kindly consented to its publication.

HADCKE'S Reed and Brass Band is fast gaining a national reputation as a musical organization. The members are compelled to refuse an engagement to play for the Winchester (O.) Fair on account of the previous arrangement to accompany the Knights Templar at St. Louis, and the directors of the Georgia State Fair want them to play a two weeks' engagement for their next meeting which will be held at Macon in a short time. They will also play for the tournament at Flemingsburg on the 4th of September.

The Ohio River Packet Company has been organized at Newport. The incorporators are J. C. Agnew, formerly of the old Handy, and A. J. and W. H. R. Markley.

PARSON matches are dangerous. Nath Woodcock, a well-known drummer, lit one the other day, a particle of the burning wax and sulphur struck one of his eyes and now he is about to lose that organ.

NEAR Red House a few days ago, Mr. Ed Crooby took from a beehive a can containing thirty pounds of honey and placed it in an adjacent house. During the day the bees entered the house and carried away all the honey.—Richmond Register.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla is designed for those who need a medicine to purify their blood, build them up, increase their appetite, and rejuvenate their whole system. No other preparation so well meets this want. Its record of forty years is one of constant triumph over disease.

The Kentucky Central will run a special train to Lexington next Sunday, leaving here at 6 a. m., and Lexington, on return trip, at 5:30 p. m. The evangelist Rev. George O. Barnes, just returned from a tour of the world, will conduct open air services that day at Woodland Park. Round trip tickets for this city, $2.

E. M. HENDERSON, who went South a year or so ago, has joined the colony of Mayville boys in St. Louis, and now holds a situation in the wholesale department of Simmons' hardware house of that place. "Mail" is one of the cleverest fellows living, and the long list of friends he made while here with Owens & Barkley will join with us in wishing him prosperity in his new home.

Where's Craddock?

Col. Craddock and the Georgetown Times will have to look to their laurels. Mr. John Wood, of Dog Fennel, has a stalk of corn with fourteen ears of corn on it, and Mr. Rye found a tobacco worm seven inches long that could stick three big leaves of white burley in his left jaw and spit ambler over the rail, stake-and-ride—Lexington Transcript.

State College.

Under the existing law, each Legislative district is entitled to send one student to the State College at Lexington, free of charge for tuition. The student must be between the ages of twelve and twenty-five years and pass a satisfactory examination in spelling, reading, writing, arithmetic as far as percentages, geography and English grammar. The Board of Examiners required by law was not named by the Court of Claims, but Judge Coons can appoint a student from this county. Applicants will please consult him at once.

L. W. Galbraith produced his certificate of election and qualified as County Superintendent of Public Schools, with E. W. Galbraith, G. S. Wall, James Shackelford and Joseph R. Davis as sureties.

Elegant Party in the Country.

Mrs. Andrew Wood entertained about one hundred and fifty of our society people at her lovely country home near Washington last evening. It was one of the most delightful events our young folks have had the pleasure of attending; for years—and to older ones, the chaperones, it was a suggestion of "old days," when servants were plenty, and the aristocracy and hospitality of Washington so much enjoyed. The Wood residence, with its large rooms and halls, is a place "altogether sweet" for a dance. And the lawn, level as a floor, with its little dark corners well lit up with numerous lanterns, and the tempting hammocks made strong for two, swinging gaily between the handsome maple trees, made outdoor life a delicious treat. But the voices that escaped now and then from those shadowed places were not unlike the "night-mare of the nightingale," very naïve, very soft, very sweet. The dining room was in splendid order, each table having some special design of cut flowers, and the occasional "compliments" to the "bouquet talk" and sought those that best suited their own stage of love's game. Ices of more than a dozen kinds were served, fruits of the season and cakes of an indescribable composition. The party was a great success.
